Russia Rejects Fort Worth Man's Bid

Russia has rejected Fort Worth's Lee Harvey Oswald, 24-year-old ex-Marine who applied for Soviet citizenship. The USSR, it was said, turned him down.

But he indicated he will accept an invitation to live there freely as a resident alien.

In Fort Worth, his aging, 51-year-old mother described her son as an "average boy with above average intelligence who perhaps wanted more out of life than he was getting."

Lee's father said that, a postscripter addition, prompted him to take up Oswald's bid.

HIS MOTHER, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said THE PRESS had her son's childhood and not from postscripter but added: "Lee was American, we lived from paycheck to paycheck."

His mother is the widow of a World War I combat veteran who died before Mrs. Oswald gave birth to Lee. The father, also named Lee, was an insurance man at the time of his death.

Lee's mother said he is a graduate of Arlington High School, who joined the Marines when he was 17 years he was 19, who joined the Marines when he was 17 years he was 19, who joined the Marines when he was 17 years he was 19.
